Journal of Clinical and Experimental Investigations / JCEI is a multidisciplinary “external peer review”, Open Access medical journal. The Journal is published four times a year (March, June, September and December). JCEI is published by MODESTUM. Content of the JCEI is archived by British Library.

JCEI accepts original articles that reports results of clinical or experimental research. We would also like to consider publication of unique case reports and brief reports. Comprehensive and informative review articles on actual issues are also within scope of the journal.

Manuscripts written only in English are published from March 2016. Our preferences are the manuscripts should be as concise as possible, written in English, take ethical principles into consideration and to utilize good language.

Journal of Clinical and Experimental Investigations receives international papers. We, as Editorial Board, expect to accept more qualitative medical research papers. Research studies with high scientific quality will appreciated with high priority for publication.

Review process of manuscripts is free of charge.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

All manuscripts should be prepared as appropriate for Uniform Requirements for manuscripts submitted to Biomedical Journals (<http://www.icmje.org>). All submitted manuscripts must be contributed solely to Journal of Clinical and Experimental Investigations and not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. Conflict of Interest Form should accompany each submission.

Ethical Considerations

Manuscripts submitted for publication must contain a statement indicated that all prospective human studies have been approved by the ethics Committee, have therefore been performed in accordance with the ethical standards of 2013 Declaration of Helsinki. It should also be clearly stated that all persons gave informed consent prior to their inclusion in the study. Studies involving animals must have the animal ethics committee approval and be conducted in accordance with the care and use of laboratory animals standards.

Copyright & Licensing

Copyright for Open Access content is retained by author(s).

Hence, author(s),

- continue to hold the copyrights of their own papers.
- grant MODESTUM the license to publish the article as the original publisher.
- grant any third party the right to use, share and adapt the article freely as long as the original work is correctly cited.

Manuscript preparation

Manuscripts should be arranged in the following order; Title page, Abstracts, Keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgements, References, Tables, Figure Legends, Figures. All of these sections should run consecutively. The use of subheads is encouraged.

Journal of Clinical and Experimental Investigations will consider the publication of manuscripts dealing with clinical or laboratory investigations, including original investigations, case reports, invited reviews and letter to editors in the broad field of Medicine. Animal or in vitro research will also be considered. All manuscripts are subject to peer-review. Manuscripts should be written in English.

Title page: The title page should not contain abbreviations. The title page should contain the full names and affiliations of all authors, Conflict of Interest statement and complete contact information (including address, phone number, fax number, email) of the corresponding author.

Abstract: An abstract of no more than 250 words in length, describing the aims, the results that were obtained from presented data and the conclusions. Abstract should be written in a structured manner including Objectives, Materials and methods, Results and Conclusions subheadings.

Keywords: Up to five key words should be supplied following the abstract. The keywords should reflect the central topic of the article and should be compatible with Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) (<https://www.nlm.nih.gov/mesh/MeSHonDemand.html>).

References: References should be numbered consecutively in order of their appearance in the text and listed in numerical order. References should be given within bracket parenthesis throughout main text of the manuscript such as [15]. Journal titles should be abbreviated according to Index Medicus. The name of all authors should be written in the References, if six or less authors exist, and the first three authors and et al. should be given if the number of authors exceeds six. References with correct punctuation should be as follows:
